Commercial Saloon—This popular place, situated at 500 Commercial street, is up-to-date in every particular. The choicest of wines and all kinds of liquors can be procured here. Best quality cigars. Billiard table in connection. If you can't come in person, call up Phone 1231 Main.

Do You feel sleepy and not a bit like working in the afternoon? Perhaps it's because of the kind of lunch you're eating—too heavy an dtoo hard to digest. Why not try the Palace restaurant on Commercial street, where all the baking is done in those famous slow-process ovens, which turn out light appetizing, wholesome things? You'll save money, too.

Released Yesterday—C. W. Benton, who has been serving a six months' sentence in the county jail on a charge of larceny, was released yesterday, his time having expired.

Mill Closed Down—The Clatsop mill was closed down yesterday on account of the yard being full of lumber and no cars to remove it and also to make necessary repairs to the machinery. The mill will probably resume operations today.

Water Commission—The quarterly report of the water commission was filed with Auditor Anderson yesterday and will be presented to the common council at its meeting Monday night. The report shows that the receipts and disbursements during the quarter were as follows. Cash on hand July 1, $6,798.82; receipts during the quarter, $11,957.25; disbursements, $5,048.57; balance on hand, $13,617.51.

Police Court—Two men who had imbibed too freely in intoxicating beverages made their appearance in the police court yesterday. One was fined $10. The other was an old man and Judge Anderson took compassion on him, arraigned him quietly in his office and admonished him to forsake his evil ways and return to the paths of sobriety and rectitude. This the man promised and Judge Anderson imposed the minimum penalty of $2.

Registrars—There was a slight increase in the registrations yesterday at the auditor's office. The total number registered up to the close of business hours was as follows: Precinct No. 1, 28; No. 2, 42; No. 3, 58; No. 4, 100; No. 5, 23; No. 6, 72. Total, 332. The increase was mostly from the Sixth precinct, where considerable interest is being taken in the selection of a councilman.

Water Commission Meeting—The Astoria Water Commission will meet tonight for the purpose of discussing the water supply of the city; the necessity of building a storage reservoir and the advisability of putting in a meter system. The meter system seems to meet with general approval among the members of the commission, as the only means to stop the enormous waste of water. It is estimated that the system will cost about $25,000, and the commission are inclined to think that it will be a paying investment.

Pleasant Report—"Beach & Bowers" minstrels at the opera house last evening drew a large audience which enjoyed one of the best minstrel shows that has ever visited this city for over a year. The first part consisted of vocal solos and funny stunts and jokes which kept the audience convulsed with laughter. Roswell J. Wright, the phenomenal male soprano, sang two beautiful solos, but every member is a minstrel and their appearance here next year will mean a packed house.—Ashland (Wisconsin) News. This fine troupe will be at the Astoria theater on next Tuesday night.

Girl Committed—Mary Mattson, aged 14 years, was committed to the custody of the Boys & Girls Aid Society authorities yesterday by Judge Trenchard on the complaint of Sheriff Pomeroy, and the latter officer left for Portland on the evening train with his charge. The girl expressed a desire to get away from the foul conditions by which she is surrounded at home and declared she could never be a good girl as long as she stayed there, as the influences were dead against any effort of the kind. The father of the child is a wanderer and a ne'er-do-well and the mother is infinitely worse, so Judge Trenchard concluded that commitment was the quickest and best way out of it. He and Sheriff Pomeroy are busy these days straightening up quite a squad of perverted youngsters, and there may be more of them sent to the same institution in a few days unless there is a sudden waking up on the part of parents and a sobering down on the part of the youngsters themselves. It is high time the authorities were moving along these lines and it is hoped there will be no let-up until the children are put under restraint at home or committed to other and more capable hands. The officers will have the hearty endorsement of the whole city in the work they have undertaken.

Tillamook Citizen Here—The steam-er Sue H. Elmore arrived in port last evening about 8 o'clock and docked at the O. R. & N. pier. She had a number of passengers and a good bunch of freight for this port and Portland. Among her passengers was a venerable citizen of Garibaldi, by the name of Peter Bryum, who is en route to Portland, where he will figure as a witness in some of the right-of-way trials that are due to come off in the federal court there on the 12th of the present month. Mr. Bryum states that thirty-six cases have been filed there, so far, by the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Company, against certain property owners who are bucking the right-of-way men. Mr. Bryum will have some buildings to set back, as he is quite a property owner along the line as it passes through Garibaldi, and he reports that the line will run directly through the Elmore cannery on its route through the place. He will leave for the metropolis this evening on the train.

Happily Wedded—Yesterday evening at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Houghton, at No. 220 Commercial street, there occurred a pleasant wedding ceremony, at which there were assembled a few kinsmen and friends of the high-contracting parties, Mr. Warren H. Osburne, and Miss Gertrude Brallier, both of Warrenton. Rev. W. Seymour Short, rector of Grace Episcopal church, officiating. The pretty bride was supported by her cousin, Miss Emeline Houghton, as bridesmaid, while the groom was attended by Mr. William Houghton as best man. After the ceremony, the company sat down to a lovely wedding supper during which all the good wishes that could be thought of were showered upon the happy young people. Mr. and Mrs. Osburne left on the evening express for Portland, and the Sound cities on a honeymoon trip, after which they will return to this county and found their future home and happiness.

Back for a Season—Yesterday Howard M. Brownell, right-of-way man for the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad company, came in from the front at Tillamook, for a rest and to report to his superiors. He is a good enough railway man already, not to say anything about what is going on out there, simply saying that the work is going ahead satisfactorily. On his way in from the Nehalem he came in by the coast trail, and in rounding the second point this side of the old Warren home, the tide caught him and his tired horse and soaked him to the skin, besides nearly drowning his animal. By swinging the horse suddenly into the back-track he succeeded in finding his way through the volume of salt water that engulfed him and then patiently awaited the falling of the tide before he ventured on. He never realized before just what the flood tide meant in the way of quality and quantity; it caught him about the arm-pits in the saddle, and his horse is coughing it up yet.

Circuit Court—Adjourned—Judge McBride yesterday handed down the following orders in the circuit court: Judgment on the verdict as rendered in the case of Hume versus the Columbia River Packing Association; decree of foreclosure in the matter of Cecilia Kriebohm versus W. D. Lyman, et al. The court was adjourned to an open date in December, when the judge will return and close up some matters still pending. He, and C. E. Runyon, left on last night's express for Portland and Oregon City, at which latter place, Judge McBride will open the regular term of court today.

Police Court Receipts—The receipts in the police court for the month of October were $1,015, a falling off from the receipts of September. This is accounted for in that there are not as many gambling games being run in the city. Over $900 of the receipts for October were from gambling fines. It is estimated that the fines and forfeitures from July to January will exceed $10,000, the largest in the history of the city, most of which is realized from gambling fines. At this rate the receipts from gambling fines will exceed the amount received from the annual tax levy.

We Are Busy and selling great quantities of goods, but there are lots of fine goods left yet, and we are selling the same at one-half and in many instances at less than one-fourth of the original cost. Come now, don't wait. C. H. Cooper's Great Retiring Sale. 11-1-1f

Assessments Equalized—The board of equalization of the city met yesterday afternoon to equalize the assessments for the improvement of Bond street between Sixth street and the McClure line; Eleventh street between Harrison and Kensington avenues, and Bond street between Ninth and Sixth streets. Two or three property holders appeared to object to the assessments, but none were filed in writing and therefore were not considered. The committee will report to the council next Monday night recommending the confirmation of the assessments.

Predict Cold Weather—Old timers in Astoria, whose judgment is worthy of consideration, predict a cold winter for Astoria this year, with snow and ice. There is a large amount of snow in the mountains, coming earlier than usual this year, and a continuation, with snow in all parts of the state, means a flood in the Willamette and Columbia rivers next spring.

For Councilman—Axel Jacobson of Upper Astoria has declared his intentions of becoming a candidate for councilman from the Third ward, subject to the decision of the Citizens' convention to be held November 17.
